ENDOWMENT FUND:

The Institution has three thousand dollars invested in eight per cent Georgia bonds—being a portion of the donation made by Col. W. P. Price. The remainder of the fund ($1200) was invested in real estate and used in repairs on the building. It, also, has a subscription to said fund of nearly two thousand dollars which will be increased from time to time by friends of the Institution. The above bonds are in the hands of the State Treasurer for safe keeping.

REPORT:

In presenting our second annual report, the Board of Trustees take great pleasure in saying that the success of the institution, thus far, has been quite satisfactory. Our efforts to furnish FREE EDUCATION to the young men and young women of Georgia are beginning to be felt and appreciated. The number of students is constantly augmenting, and we shall not be satisfied until the College is filled to its utmost capacity with pupils. We shall seek to make the institution a blessing to the whole State.

Among the noticeable features of our school, the past year, is the great number of teachers which it has furnished to the State schools—some twenty odd. From estimated returns received from these several schools, not less than one thousand children have received profitable instruction during the fall months. A large per cent of this number will, in future years, no doubt, become students of the College, in quest of higher culture. We cannot estimate the benefits which are thus accruing to the youth of our State.

Nothing retards our usefulness so much as the lack of suitable chemical, philosophical and astronomical apparatus. Every surplus dollar in our treasury has been expended in repairs on the building—purchase of pumps, fire hose, etc. The College building barely escaped destruction by fire during the past year, hence we have endeavored to provide against a similar occurrence in the future.

Up to this time, the State has failed to help us. Having accepted the donation of money from the general government, for educational purposes, the State is in duty bound, by the terms of acceptance, to provide suitable college buildings. Georgia has not as yet complied with the conditions of the grant. This being the case we cannot think otherwise than that the Legislature should at least appropriate money sufficient to save the noble edifice, which the Congress of the U. S. has given us, from going into delapidation. The building originally cost $70,000. It is still a magnificent structure, and a few thousand dollars will put it in good repair for twenty years longer. We trust that our appeal to the Legislature will not be in vain.

NORTH GEORGIA AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

Never did professors and teachers work more unremittingly in any college than have ours during the past year. The labor of classifying the students—composed as they necessarily were of minds in all stages of preparation—from almost every section of the State—has been, under the circumstances, of no ordinary character. Every year in the future will witness a higher order of training.

Many plans for the more successful teaching of the youth entrusted to us have not been put into operation for the mere lack of means. Sufficient aid we believe will yet be secured to make the school take a front rank among the educational institutions of the State.

The Trustees of the University of Georgia have done all that they possibly could for the school. A committee from their number, will attend our next annual commencement, who will report their views to the Board at its July meeting. We may reasonably expect an increase of the appropriation at the beginning of our next fall term.

The future of the institution is bright. A desire to benefit the rising generation around us—to benefit the glorious old commonwealth of Georgia—will nerve our hands to continue the noble work begun. Believing firmly in the idea that Providence "helps those who first help themselves," we will ceaselessly labor on in a cause so elevatiug and beneficial in its results.

UNIFORM.

The uniform to be worn by the male students will be of gray cloth, made by several mills in Georgia. A company of cadets have been organized, but not yet supplied with guns, accoutrements, etc. These, we hope to supply at an early day.

COMMITTEE OF VISITORS.

The following gentlemen, members of the Board of Trustees of the University of Georgia, were appointed to attend the next annual Commencement exercises of the North Georgia Agricultural College, to wit:

Hon. M. V. M. Miller, Hon. B. H. Hill and Hon. J. A. Billups.

CO-EDUCATION.

We have thought that we could secure the highest social and intellectual character by educating both sexes together: Our observation during the past year satisfies us that in this respect we were right. The young ladies have, in their appropriate sphere, kept pace with the other sex, and have in every instance, after leaving the school, found ample employment in teaching in the common school of the State—thus obtaining the means of honorable support. Upon this subject, the views of JEAN PAUL RICHTER are, in our opinion, so true that we append an extract from one of his works: “To insure modesty, I would advise the educating of sexes together; for two boys will preserve twelve girls, or two girls twelve boys, innocent amid winks, jokes and improprieties, merely by that instinctive sense, which is the forerunner of matured modesty. But I will guarantee nothing in a school where girls are alone together, and still less where boys are.”

ACT OF CONGRESS.

AN ACT authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to convey the United States Branch Mint at Dahlonega, Georgia, to the Trustees of the North Georgia Agricultural College for educational purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled. That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and is hereby, authorized and directed to convey to the Trustees of the North Georgia Agricultural College, located in the town of Dahlonega, Georgia, the building known as the United States branch mint at Dahlonega, and the ten acres of land connected therewith, located on the lot of land number nine hundred and forty-nine, in the 12th district and first section of Lumpkin county, said conveyance to be made by the Secretary of the Treasury so soon as he is assured that said Trustees have been properly incorporated by the laws of Georgia, and on the express condition that said building shall be used exclusively for educational purposes and in conformity with the provisions of the act entitled “An act donating public lands to the several States and Territories which may provide colleges for the benefit of agricultural and mechanic arts.” Approved April 20, 1871.

LOCATION.

Dahlonega is the county site of Lumpkin county, a village of about 500 inhabitants, exclusive of students of the College. It is 25 miles by stage from Gainesville on the Air-Line railroad, and about 70 miles North of Atlanta. It lies in the centre of North-East Georgia, 50 miles from the State lines of Tennessee, North and South Carolina. The mountains lie all around and about the place, rendering it one of the most beautiful and romantic places in the South. Fine free-stone water abounding everywhere, and mineral springs within easy walk of the College building, that are regarded by eminent physicians as containing medicinal properties for many of the diseases which afflict children from the lower country, to wit: chills, fevers and malarial diseases generally, and are especially recommended for rheumatism and dyspepsia. There are two churches in the place—Methodist and Baptist—with regular pastors, but whose pulpits are occasionally filled by ministers of other christian denominations. Two Sabbath Schools are regularly kept up. The MOUNTAIN SIGNAL is published in the place. Its columns are always open for the publication of original compositions by the pupils, and will from time to time contain useful information concerning the College, its experiments, examinations, etc. There is a Masonic Lodge in the place, also a flourishing Temperance organization. Should a railroad be extended through the State North and South—from Macon to Knoxville, it is likely that it will be located by or near the town.

ADMISSION FEE.

It should be remembered that there are no tuition fees exacted of any student. An admission fee of $5 each term is paid, by those who are not in indigent circumstances. These are furnished with cards of admission by the Relief Committee. Just as soon as our means will allow, it is the design of the Board to require no fee whatever. The admission fees go entirely to defray the expenses of wood and repairs on the building, as there is no fund from which to meet these demands.

NORTH GEORGIA AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

PEABODY FUND.

During the past year the school has received from Dr. B. Sears, of Stanton, Va., the sum $450, as a donation from the above fund. The reception of this money was quite timely, as it enabled us to meet demands of teachers that could not otherwise be supplied.

EXPENSES.

Students can readily find board in good families for $8 to $12 per month. Should young gentlemen prefer messing together, favorable opportunities will be afforded them where they can doubtless live upon five dollars per month.

A number of houses and cottages can be rented at reasonable rates, ranging from $2.50 to $5 per month.

As real estate is very cheap in the place, it is designed by several families to purchase small lots and cottages, and use them until their children have been educated.

LIBRARY.

The Institution has but few books of its own, at this time. Some generous contributions have found their way to the College during the past year, which we trust will be largely augmented in time. To make up this deficiency, the large and valuable Library of President Lewis—equalled by but few, if any, private libraries in the State, has been generously thrown open to the use of students during the past year, for which the Trustees feel profoundly grateful. The privilege of his library has been of immense benefit to the school.

We shall be pleased to receive contributions of books, pamphlets, rare old papers, and pictures of prominent authors, statesmen, educators, divines, lawyers, physicians, artizans, musicians, as well as those who have distinguished themselves in any other of the honorable pursuits of life. These will have a conspicuous place assigned them in the College.

CLOTHING AND DRESS.

In preparing clothing for pupils, the Board especially enjoins on parents to prepare for every day wear such articles as can be made at home by every skillful mother and housewife.—Home-made jeans, home-spun dresses and calico are suitable for the school-room. For Sunday wear, the parents will be governed by their means and tastes.

LITERARY SOCIETY.

The Price Literary Society has been the means of advancing the young gentlemen in the art of declamation and a knowledge of Parliamentary law. It is quite probable that another society, somewhat similar, will be organized the incoming year, which will become a generous rival for the honors of literature and oratory.

RULES.

The following rules have been adopted for the government of the school, and others will be added when deemed advisable:

1. Whilst the school is in session the students are under the direction of the President, aided by his associates in the Faculty.
2. Pupils may enter the College at any time during the session, but it is advisable that they should enter at the beginning of a term. The reasons for this rule are too many and obvious to be repeated.
3. Every pupil is required to attend the opening exercises every morning, or be marked for neglect or tardiness, unless excused.
4. The Holy Bible shall never be excluded from among the books that are used in the Institution.

5. As divine service is held nearly every Sabbath in the year in the churches of the village, it is expected that each student will attend divine service at least once every Sabbath. And for irreverent behavior while attending church shall be suspended or otherwise punished according to the offence.

6. Regular attendance upon recitations is so important that none will be excused except where necessity will justify their absence.

7. No pupil shall be allowed to leave before the close of the session, except upon the request or permission of the parent or guardian.

8. No student shall be received of known immoral habits, nor where they have been expelled from other institutions except upon satisfactory evidence of reformation, which will be determined by the Board of Trustees.

9. Strict attention to study, and punctuality in attendance on lectures, recitations and other duties will be made the condition of every student's continuance at the College, except where they are broken off by the requirements of the farm or other home demands. During their stay within the town no student will be allowed to devote the hours of study in idleness and vagrancy.

10. Students are required quietly to take their places in the Recitation Rooms at the appointed times; to attend closely to the exercises of the hour, not whispering or communicating in any manner with each other, and, when the exercise is over, to retire in a quiet and respectful manner. Each instructor, in calling the roll, is required to mention the absence against any students who are then present, and if no excuse is given by such students before they leave the room, it is regarded a wilful case of absence, to be reported to the President.

11. The habit of contracting debts at stores, except for necessary books and stationary, is strictly forbidden. unless with the knowledge and permission of parent or guardian.

12. The use of spirituous or intoxicating liquors, is strictly forbidden, nor shall pupils be allowed to have it in their rooms, nor to visit bar-rooms. The violation of this rule will be attended by immediate suspension by the President, who shall refer the case to the Board of Trustees for further action.

13. A student who shall offer or accept a challenge to fight, or in any way aid, abet or promote a duel or upbraid another for declining to fight, shall be expelled.

14. Pupils are prohibited from entering into combinations under whatever pretext for purposes of disturbance. Any one engaging in riotous conduct, or becoming a party to an agreement to hold no intercourse with a fellow-student, or to do any act to the prejudice of good order and gentlemanly bearing, shall be suspended or expelled according to the aggravation of the offence. Propriety of behavior is enjoined upon students at all times and places.

15. No pupil will be allowed to play cards, or bet, or wager money, or any other thing of value upon games of chance.

16. All pupils are prohibited from carrying or having in their possession deadly weapons; and any one drawing or using such weapons against another will be expelled.

17. Profane swearing, or corrupt language, and defacing the walls, will receive prompt punishment. And all offences against good morals, and all irregularities or neglects to the prejudice of good order and gentlemanly bearing, though not herein enumerated, will be taken cognizant of according to the nature and degree of the offence.

18. Cleanliness is strictly enjoined, and it is expected in every instance that male students will wait upon themselves, polish their own shoes, dust their own clothing and make their own fires. Young ladies, whether boarding at the institution or in families in the village, will be expected to keep their rooms in perfect order, and to perform all other domestic duties that may properly fall upon them to do. These things are enjoined and expected, because one of the prime objects in view is to teach the young men and young ladies of the country the importance of self-reliance and self-dependence.

19. No student shall be allowed to engage in any concerts, charades, exhibitions or minstrelsies. Nor shall any student, while connected with the Institution be allowed to attend balls or loiter about places of dissipation. Nor attend circuses, without the consent of their parent or guardian.

THE COLLEGE BUILDING.

OBJECTS.

The education afforded by the Institution has especially to view the preparation of the pupil:

1. For the business and for the enjoyment of practical HOME and FARM life.
2. For the higher classes in the University of Georgia.
3. For the profession of teaching, and as a passport to the same, CERTIFICATES OF PROFICIENCY in the studies of the several departments, and of qualifications to teach, will be granted by the Trustees to students, showing diligence, aptitude and progress in their education.

TAKE NOTICE.

The Spring Session of 1875 will begin on Monday, 4th day of January, and close on the 7th day of July.

Commencement Sermon will be preached on the 4th day of July.

Examination of classes will take place on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, following.
